S.J. PHILLIPS

Art Deco bold geometric diamond chevron strap bracelet, French, set with rectangular and baguette cuts featuring three principal diamonds of 4.08ct E VS2; 3.74ct H SI1 and 3.65ct J VS2, these emerald-cut and step-cut rectangular diamonds spaced at intervals to the diamond architectural ground, formed of articulated channel set baton shaped links, alternating flush batons with chevron shaped batons similar to the tramline edges, set throughout with rectgangular and baguette cut diamonds, open set in platinum, French workshop mark and French platinum assaymarks to the gallery, accompanied by three GIA reports for the principal diamonds: to centre 4.08ct, E VS2, GIA report no. 2215036986; to the tongue end 3.74ct H SI1, GIA report no. 2215045488 and to the box end 3.65ct J VS2, GIA report no. 2215046821, all graded as no fluorescence, the remainder of the diamond ground approximately 40cts (total diamond weight approximately 51.47cts)

Length 18cm / 7"

Width 2.5cm / 1"

Diamonds:- 3.74ct: 9.48 x 8.37 x 5.47mm; 4.08ct: 9.32 x 8.02 x 6.03mm & 3.65ct: 9.77 x 8.57 x 5.09mm
Weight: 93g