

S.J. PHILLIPS

19th century gold archaeological revival brooch and earrings set by Tiffany, New York c.1870

, the brooch with a tapering fringe of droplet ended batons, from an inverse gothic arch swing, below a wirework decorated geometric rectangle and square motif, the square oriented obliquely to centre topped by a dome, the earrings en suite with ball tops, unsigned but together with a case with worn stamp for ' ____ (Union) SQUARE // TIFFANY // NEW YORK'

Length of brooch 7cm / 2¾"

Length of earrings 7.5cm / 3"

Weight: 25g gr