

S.J. PHILLIPS

Pair of 18th century diamond flowerhead cluster earrings, c.1770, close cut-down collet set with cushion cut stones, a larger one to centre bordered by six spaced smaller diamond set petals, mounted in silver, later gold peg fittings and backs, the central diamonds very approximately 0.75ct each

Width 1.2cm / ½"

Weight: 4.5g