

S.J. PHILLIPS

Art Deco diamond cluster bar brooch by Cartier, London c.1925, sprung for wear with a flower or scarf, the central arch of baguette diamonds flanked by baguette 'C' motifs, two short rows of diamond collets spaced to either side with small baguette accents in between, oblique square cut diamond terminals, signed 'Cartier London', serial number 7180, the sprung mechanism works by pushing the ends together; raising the whole diamond cluster away from the fitting

Length 3.6cm / 1 3/8"

Weight: 7.5g