

S.J. PHILLIPS

18th century emerald and diamond ring, c.1740, the principal rectangular emerald cut-down collet set landscape,

with facetting around the broad table, foiled, between rose cut diamond cluster shoulders, three diamonds to each of triangular and rounded form, all close cut down collet set in gold and silver, to pierced gold shoulders with green-man mask and double scroll detail, fluted tapering shank, the closed underside featuring a fluted shell and rocaille in an assymetric rococo design

Emerald spread approximately 12 x 10mm

Mount width 11.5mm

Weight: 6g