

S.J. PHILLIPS

Antique diamond and pearl set basket brooch by Tiffany, probably New York, c.1900, designed as a tapering woven basket with looped handle and supporting a spray of two flowerheads, buds and leaves, the basket set throughout with old brilliant cut diamonds, the weave effect formed of raised scrolling and lattice style mountwork, the diamond set five-petalled flowerheads each centred by a pearl, two smaller pearls forming flanking buds, open set in platinum and yellow gold, signed
'TIFFANY & Co.', together with a blue Tiffany case, approximately 2.70cts of diamonds, the pearls range 4.1mm - 3.4mm Width 3.5cm / 1 3/8"

Height 2.8cm / 1 1/8"

Pearls 4.1mm - 3.4mm
Weight: 13g