

S.J. PHILLIPS

Mid-19th century foliate carved garnet and gem set turtle brooch, English c.1860, the shell formed of the leaf shaped cabochon garnet within a surround of cushion and old round cut diamonds and green guilloche enamel, the head stylised with three step cut emeralds, the body and underbelly of the turtle naturalistically chased and engraved in gold, all close back settings, with detachable pin fitting, the approximate diamond weight is 1.15cts

Length: 6.1cm

Width at widest: 3.5cm

Weight: 39.5g