

S.J. PHILLIPS

Mid-20th century ruby and diamond cluster necklace, c.1955, with a zig-zag fringe of Burma rubies, formed by seven lozenge shaped clusters of cushion cut rubies, claw set and articulated, hung between pave set diamond triangles on an articulated diamond collar, the triangular motifs each spaced by a baguette cut diamond arc, graduated to the front, forming a wide, open collar design.

Length 37cm / 14½"

Weight: 113g