

S.J. PHILLIPS

Antique French round gold and enamel box with verre eglomise miniatures of Napoleonic interest, the box by Adrien-Jean-Maximilien Vachette, Paris 1798-1809,

Weight: 161g

the cover set with scene of a courtyard facade, the cobbled central area with a six horse coach understood to be conveying Napoleon (1st Consul), cavalry and another coach beside, the base with round miniature depicting the front of a manor house with lawn, flower beds and trees, people walking around the grounds, the gentleman in the red coat purported to be Cambaceres (2nd Consul), blue enamel rims, the incurved sides overlaid with composition, inscribed to the flange 'Vachette. Bijoutier

Paris. 2me titre'

Diameter 8.5cms / 3 1/8"

Height 2.1cms / 3/8"