

S.J. PHILLIPS

Antique gold fringe necklace by Castellani, Italian c.1860

, the fine three-row woven necklace suspending a fringe flowerheads, chain and amphorae, with turquoise and lapis lazuli coloured enamel highlights, signed to reverse of clasp

Notes:

Inspired by the "Melos" necklace c. 330-300BC now in the British Museum. For a similar necklace by Castellani see the Cooper-Hewitt, National Design Museum, Smithsonian Institution, New York

Length 35.5cm / 14"

Weight: 82g