

S.J. PHILLIPS

18th century chrysolite flower and bow pendant necklace, Portuguese c.1770, of openwork design, centred by a principal triple looped ribbon tied bow, each loop centred by a flower and stem, suspending a smaller ribbon bow and pear shaped flowerhead below, on a necklace alternating stylised bows and marquise clusters, close set in silver with shaped loop terminals to fit a ribbon back

Length across fittings 36cm / 14¼"

Weight: 71.5g