

S.J. PHILLIPS

19th century coloured pearl, diamond and ruby spider brooch, c.1890, an iridescent brown pearl forming the abdomen, cushion cut diamond to the thorax, cabochon ruby eyes, rose cut diamonds all along the legs, closed set in silver and gold, accompanied by SSEF report no. 76301 stating that the pearl is of natural saltwater origin and with natural colour

Length 3.8cm / 1 1/4"