

S.J. PHILLIPS

19th century gold mounted banded and moss agate box of casket form, English c.1820,

Weight: 189g

the cover topped by three picture-frame reserves set with oval and cushion shaped moss agates, the bevelled edges to top and base with panels of white and brown banded agate with moss agate divisions, base set with grey and white banded agate panel.

For a similar example see:

'Catalogue des tabatieres boites et etuis des XVIIIe et XIXe siecles du musee du Louvre', by Sean Grandjean, p.291, Paris 1981. The Louvre example misdescribed as German c.1770.

Length 8.9cm / 3 1/2" 5.4cm / 2 1/8"

Depth 3cm / 1 1/8"