

S.J. PHILLIPS

Early 20th century emerald and diamond articulated cluster clasp by Cartier, Paris c.1915, with fittings for three rows, of rectangular arrow-ended outline, pierced and millegrain set, the central cushion cut emerald to a diamond collet panel, the diamond set side panels featuring stylised strapwork, a collet diamond terminal at each end, one forming the pushbutton to the clasp, mounted in platinum, signed 'Cartier Paris' and with French platinum control mark

Overall length across marquise diamond terminals 7.5cm / 3"

Width 1.7cm / 5/8"

Weight: 13.5g