

S.J. PHILLIPS

19th century emerald, ruby, enamel and gold articulated snake necklace, Swiss c.1840, naturalistically modelled, the head with lines of cushion cut rubies and emeralds, the central line alternating stones, a cushion cut diamond to each eye, the gold link body allover decorated in enamel, to the top half guilloche red, dark blue and green with white accents, the underside with white and dark blue curved bar design, with two clasp positions, one to the side of the head and one to the mouth

Maximum Length 43cm / 17"

Weight: 115g