

S.J. PHILLIPS

Early 20th century cabochon sapphire and diamond 'Draperie' jabot pendant brooch by Cartier, Paris c.1912, of cluster and swag design, hung with an oval cabochon sapphire in lambrequin shaped diamond border, suspended upon a double diamond collet chain from two similar landscape clusters, millegrain set, the pin signed 'CARTIER', with workshop mark for Henri Picq and French assaymarks to both pin and one upper cluster gallery, accompanied by IAJA Expertise report no. XP1679-170424 signed by Olivier Bachet & Bernhard Berger declaring that in their opinion this is a 'genuine Cartier item' by Cartier Paris circa 1912

Width at top 5.6cm / 2 1/4"

Length hung 5.7cm / 2 1/4"

Weight: 12g