

S.J. PHILLIPS

Early 20th century diamond and ruby cluster ring, c.1915, the central round brilliant cut diamond, in a waisted oblong diamond border with four round brilliant cut diamond collets at the compass points, the inner ground set with calibre cut rubies, three rose cut diamonds to each shoulder, fluted wire shank, mounted in platinum.

The diamonds estimated to weigh 1.75cts in all, (the centre stone approximately 1.00ct), the rubies estimated to weigh 0.30cts

Length 1.5cm / 5/8"

Weight: 6.5g