

S.J. PHILLIPS

Early 19th century diamond set double-anthemion and scroll bandeau tiara, c.1820,

Weight: 121.5g

set throughout with graduating cushion cut diamonds, designed as running band of the double-anthemion motifs joined by S scrolls, all set at an angle, the anthemion motifs of lozenge outline, the classic forms set back-to-back, each with the graduating petals emanating from a central principal cushion, open set in silver and gold, on a partially sprung fitting, later black ribbon strands to back Length around 43cm / 17"

Width 3.2cm / 1 1/4"