

S.J. PHILLIPS

Ruby and diamond double flowerhead brooch by Cartier, Paris 1942, of stylised design the principal bloom centred by a cushion cut diamond in double border of cushion cut rubies, diamond accents around the outside, flanked by an opening trumpet shaped flower upon an articulated hinge, with a cushion ruby stamen skirted by round brilliant cut diamonds and diamond set bell, each upon a curving diamond line stem of overlapping form, mounted in platinum and yellow gold, signed 'Cartier Paris', serial number 08332 (last digit not clear), with the crossed Cs workshop mark for Cartier SA, French assaymarks, accompanied by IAJA Expertise report no. XP1874-060924 signed by Olivier Bachet & Bernhard Berger declaring that in their opinion this is 'a genuine Cartier item'.

Length 5cm / 2"

Weight: 18g