S.J. PHILLIPS

Art Deco ruby, emerald and diamond geometric palm tree motif lapel watch by Mauboussin, Paris c.1925, the tree top set with four principal leaf-carved emeralds to a geometric diamond ground set with circular and baguette cuts, buff-top ruby accents, the palm fronds suspending a five stone fringe of pear shaped ruby drop 'coconuts', the articulated trunk and base below of geometric design and set with baguette, square and circular cut diamonds, the base also featuring buff-top calibre emeralds and rubies and set with the watch to reverse, the rectangular dial mounted landscape and featuring with Arabic numerals and blued steel hands, mounted in platinum, signed to the case side and palm tree: 'MAUBOUSSIN PARIS', serial number 1195 to case, tree-top and trunk, workshop mark to case (rubbed), French assaymarks to tree top and within case Length 7.3cm / 2 7/8"

Width 3.7cm / 1&#65533;"
Weight: 30g