

S.J. PHILLIPS

Pair of 19th century pearl, diamond and black enamel pendant shell earrings, c.1880, each hung with a scallop shell set with lines of half pearls and with small pearl accent, rose cut diamond scroll tops, suspended within circular frames of graduated half pearls in black enamel line rims, from half-pearl set ribbon bow tops, mounted in gold Length 4.7cm / 1¾"
Weight: 19g