S.J. PHILLIPS

Art Deco diamond double clip brooch with bangle cuff fitting by Cartier Paris, 1937, the geometrical clips of curved square form in oblique position, each set with a principal round brilliant diamond to a pave set diamond ground of smaller round brilliants and with baguette diamond accents, the panels extending from a scroll end similarly set with pave ground and baguette diamonds, signed Cartier Paris (rubbed), clips engraved '1' and '2', the second with serial number L4338, French assay marks for platinum and 18 carat gold, indistinct workshop maker's marks, together with a blackened gold cuff for wear as a bangle, also serial numbered L4338, same maker's mark, French assay mark for 18 carat gold and numbered to each side '1' and '2' for matching up with the correct clip, accompanied by IAJA Expertise report no. XP1861-280824 signed by Olivier Bachet & Bernhard Berger declaring that in their opinion this is 'a genuine Cartier item' made by special order Clips measuring 3.5 x 3.0cm / 1 9/16 x 1 3/16"

Inner circumference of cuff fitting 17cm
Weight: 41.5g