

S.J. PHILLIPS

Early 20th century celadon jade, white enamel and diamond necklace, c.1915, attributed to Cartier, the white enamelled platinum chain of oval links, with four sections of carved oval links in the pale jade secured on diamond set roundels, the sautoir style pendant chain joined by diamond set ellipse, hung below with two jade flower-vase pendants, numbered on the bolt ring, possibly 49_, together with a

Cartier case

Length open 47.5cm / 18 1/2"

Weight: 28g