

S.J. PHILLIPS

19th century golden topaz necklace with cross pendant-brooch and pair of pendant earrings en suite, c.1840,

the necklace with graduated canted rectangular scissor cut topaz of rich golden yellow colour, open cut-down collet set in fancy scalloped galleries and with triple bead accents to the underside, the detachable cross with elongated topaz forming each arm, a square cut to centre and with circular faceted topaz to each inner corner, similarly set and with scroll embellishments, also for wear as brooch, the en suite earrings with faceted kite shaped drops (detachable) below canted rectangular tops, together with a contemporary case

Length of necklace 42cm / 16 1/2"

Length of cross 7.5cm / 3"

Length of earrings inc. fitting 6.2cm / 2 3/8"

Weight: 136g gross