

Louis XV vari-coloured oval gold box by Pierre Cerneau, Paris 1764, with trophies of love and gardening, the cover and base centred by sable panels with chased vari-colour gold trophies, the cover featuring flowers, foliage, a bow and quiver of arrows, similar to base with a basket of fruit, both within wreath and foliate frames and borders of polished gold with bright cut bands, the fluted sides spaced by pendant husks in lemon gold Length 7.6cm / 3"

Width 5.6cm 2 1/4"

Height 3.6cm / 1 3/8"
Weight: 136.5g