

S.J. PHILLIPS

Art Deco diamond set wristwatch by Cartier, Paris c.1920, formerly part of the Bathurst Jewels, the silvered circular dial with black Roman numerals and signed Cartier, blued steel hands, the bezel and scroll-end shoulder lugs set with rose-cut diamonds and accented by a French cut diamond above the 12 and below the six, the platinum case with gold back featuring the serial case numbers 27347 24138, black fabric strap with deployant clasp topped by a simple rectangle numbered 767 and with trace of the workshop mark for Edmond Jaeger (watchmaker for Cartier at this time).

Provenance:

From the collection of Gloria, late Dowager Countess Bathurst (1927-2018)

Case width 2cm / $\frac{3}{4}$ "

Weight: 20g