

S.J. PHILLIPS

19th century cabochon ruby and diamond cross pendant, c.1860, centred by a principal cushion shaped cabochon ruby to arms set with eleven uniform round cabochon rubies, old cut diamond to each terminal and the inner corners, mounted in gold embellished with fluted scrolls, leaves and a foliate lyre motif, French control mark for 18ct gold

Length 4.9cm / 1 15/16"

Weight: 7.9g