S.J. PHILLIPS

Early 19th century three colour gold and amethyst wheatsheaf buckle-pendant, c.1810, in the form of a stylised sheaf of wheat with fan shaped upper section formed of vari- coloured gold flowerheads on coil-wire stems alternating lines of oval facetted amethysts, all above waisted stems of wire 'tied' by ears of wheat, flowerheads, a scythe and a cushion cut chrysoberyl, the bottom with line of smaller amethyst circular cuts, later added fittings Length 5.8cm / 2"

Width 4.1cm / 1 5/8"
Weight: 14.5g