S.J. PHILLIPS

19th century emerald and diamond insect brooch, c.1840, set with Colombian emeralds, the abdomen formed of a principal pear shaped emerald, the upper wings set with graduated emeralds, cushion cut diamonds to underwings and lower wings, central cushion diamond to thorax, a facetted emerald to each eye and diamond to hean and antennae, open collet set in silver and gold with naturalistic legs, accompanied by GCS report no. 81318-93 giving a Colombian origin opinion on the emeralds and that they show minor indications of clarity enhancement Wingspan 4.6cm / 1 13/16"

Length 3cm / 1"
Weight: 11.5g