

S.J. PHILLIPS

19th century diamond set cluster and scroll choker necklace, c.1890,

with a circular two-row cluster to centre around a principal round brilliant cut diamond, between a band of openwork foliate scrolls with buds, pear shaped end clusters and ribbon like terminals, open collet set throughout with old European round brilliant cut diamonds, mounted in silver and gold, on a later black velvet ribbon back and 18ct white gold slide clasp

Length 23cm / 9"

Width 2.5cm / 1"

Weight: 57.5g gross