

S.J. PHILLIPS

George II gold mounted banded agate oval box, English c.1750, with hunting motifs, the hardstone cover and base panels with light through dark brown markings and dendritic features, reeded gold rims, bow thumbpiece, the gold sides chased and engraved with a band of hunting and bird vignettes alternating diaper pattern reserves, the front with stag being pursued by hounds, the back similar but with fox quarry, a windmill and buildings beyond, the sides each with a different scene of a game type bird beside a tree bough

Length 7.1cm / 2 7/8"

Width 7.4cm / 2 1/8"

Depth 2.2cm / 7/8"

Weight: 73.5g