

S.J. PHILLIPS

19th century diamond floral cluster tremblant spray brooch, c.1840, decorated with an en tremblant flowerhead with five petals centred by a large cushion shaped diamond of oblong outline, upon a scrolling stem with budding flowerheads and curling foliage, open cut down collet set in silver and gold with cushion cut diamonds throughout with rose cut diamonds accenting, gold fittings

Length 6.5cm / 2 1/8"

Width 5.5cm / 2 1/8"

Weight: 22.5g