

18th century cushion cut diamond circular cluster ring, c.1770, the principal diamond, approximately 1ct, within a graduated two row border of smaller cushion cuts, cut-down collet set, the close set underside inscribed with a cypher possibly MYL, and bright-cut engraved scalloped border with zigzag band, mounted in silver and gold, simple gold shank of facetted section
Diameter $1.5 \mathrm{~cm} / 9 / 16 \mathrm{c}$ "
Weight: 4 g

