

S.J. PHILLIPS

Pair of 18th century diamond cluster earrings, c.1770,

old and cushion cut diamonds graduating from larger central stones, the button shaped centres with nine stone borders, separate outer scalloped edged frames with twenty cushion cuts, close cut down collet set in silver, later fittings

Diameter 1.7cm / 11/16"

Weight: 9g