

S.J. PHILLIPS

Antique cushion cut sapphire and diamond graduating necklace, c.1890, alternating cushion cut sapphires with cushion cut diamonds, largest to the middle, each spaced by diamond set twin-leaf motifs, the diamonds of old brilliant, single and rose cut, each duo facing point-end toward the central stone, the sapphires claw set in gold, the diamonds cut-down collet set in silver backed with gold, all open

Length 42.5cm / 16 1/2"

Width at centre 1.7cm / 2/3"

Weight: 39g