

Early 20th century ruby and diamond line bracelet by Boucheron, Paris c.1915, alternating trios of French cut diamonds and rectangular cut Burma rubies, channel set in platinum, the clasp fitting in white gold, signed 'BOUCHERON PARIS', with trace of French platinum, subsequent stamps for 'OR', 'PT950' and tomahawk symbol, accompanied by SSEF report no. 106110 giving a Burma origin opinion for the rubies and that they show no evidence of heat treatment 'in as far as the setting permits'

Length 17.5cm / 6 7/8"

Width 0.4cm / 1/8"

Weight: 21g