

S.J. PHILLIPS

Later 19th century cushion cut diamond cluster flower pendant-brooch, c.1890, in the manner of the mid-18th century style, centre stone approximately 3.00ct, within an openwork border of bell shaped petals and singular collets, all set with small cushion cut diamonds, upon a slender stem with diamond accented foliage and bud, open cut down collet set in silver and gold

Length 4cm / 1 5/8"

Width of cluster 2.5cm / 1"

Weight: 7.5g