

S.J. PHILLIPS

MARVELS IN MINIATURE

An Exhibition of Rings from Antiquity to the 18th Century

An almost universal object, imbued with meaning, the ring has been intertwined with the history of humanity for four thousand years. This autumn, S.J. Phillips, the venerable London antique jeweller, will unveil one of the most fascinating ring collections to appear on the market in recent years. Comprising 121 miniature marvels spanning over two millennia of human history, The Jonest Collection illustrates the great diversity in the design and purpose of rings dating from Ancient Greece to the 18th century. To mark the unveiling of this landmark collection, a special exhibition will be staged at S.J. Phillips' Mayfair showroom from 7 until 11 October 2024, coinciding with London Frieze Week.