

S.J. PHILLIPS

Antique three stone ruby ring, c.1890, with diamond detail, the central cushion cut ruby between outward facing pear shaped Burma rubies, foliate detail bordering the centre stone set with small cushion cut diamonds, a cushion diamond to each end, to a scroll carved gallery and fluted shoulders, mounted in 18ct gold, the rubies approximately 2.50cts in all, accompanied by scanned copy of the GCS report no. 5782-2555 for the rubies giving a Burma origin opinion and that they show no evidence of heat treatment

Width 11mm

Weight: 4g