S.J. PHILLIPS

19th century garnet and pearl necklace and cross pendant, c.1870

, the line of 44 side-by-side oval facetted pyrope-almandine garnets graduating to the front, each collet set with crimp-edged finish and hung with a small pearl below, opening on a feature bolt ring clasp to front, suspending the matching Latin cross of circular facetted garnets, set around the outside with small pearls between each collet, mounted in gold, approximately 91cts of garnets in all, together with a fitted case

Length open 37cm / 14"

Length of cross pendant 7.5cm / 3"

Length of central garnet and pearl drop 1.5cm / 5/8"

Weight: 55g