

S.J. PHILLIPS

Pair of 19th century three-colour gold crescent panel pendant earrings, probably American c.1820,

the yellow gold incurved panels with a matt ground and applied with rose and lemon gold engraved grape clusters and vineleaves to one side, ferns and a four-leafed flower to the other, suspending an triangular section drop with shield shaped sides, similarly decorated with grapes and leaves, hinged

hoop fittings

Length 4.2cm / 1 5/8"

Weight: 16.5g