

S.J. PHILLIPS

19th century amethyst collet cross pendant necklace and earrings en suite, c.1850, the necklace with graduated oval and rounded faceted amethysts, hung to the front with a detachable cross having uniform arms each formed of a single oval faceted stone, similar to centre and a smaller oval amethyst between each arm forming an 'X', the earrings each hung with a pear shaped faceted amethyst with trefoil cluster of smaller circular faceted stones below and a fourth circular stone forming the top, all open cut-down collet set in gold, (the earrings top fittings later), together with a fitted case from Tessiers

Length of necklace 43.5cm / 17"

Length of cross pendant including fitting 6.2cm / 2 1/2"

Length of earrings 5cm / 2"

Weight: 103.5g