

S.J. PHILLIPS

Late 18th / early 19th century graduated diamond collet necklace, c.1800,

, the single row of 57 diamonds of square and rectangular cushion, old oval and pear cuts, each close cut-down collet set in silver and gold, upon an oblong cluster clasp with three stones to middle bordered by a line and flanked by twin stones to either side, also cut down collet set in silver and gold, very approximately 31cts of diamonds in all

Length 39.5cm / 15 1/2"

Weight: 44.5g