

S.J. PHILLIPS

Early 19th century three stone cushion cut ruby in diamond cluster ring, English c.1810, the three graduated rubies to a shaped border of old single cut diamonds, cut down collet set in silver, upon a curving flat gold shank tapering from the width of the cluster, the rubies open set, the rubies approximately 1.10cts, the diamonds approximately 0.15cts Cluster width 10mm, length 15mm

Central ruby approximately 5.9 x 5.4 x 2.0mm Weight: 4.5g