

S.J. PHILLIPS

Antique diamond cluster lyre shaped foliate scroll tiara, c.1860, centred by two cushion cut diamond flowerhead clusters, the first forming a surmount above the smaller second, this between twin back-to-back acanthus leaf S scrolls, of curling symmetric design and set throughout with cushion cut diamonds, further C scrolls to either side, downward curving, and smaller leaf clusters at the each end, open set in silver and gold this decorative cartouche panel sits centre upon the frame

Length along diamond section 12cm / 4 1/2"

Height across diamonds at centre 5cm / 2"

Weight: 48.5g