

S.J. PHILLIPS

19th century enamel and gold rectangular brooch by Tiffany c.1880, of equestrian interest, the enamel panel depicting two jockeys riding their horses, over a low fence against a darkened background, the panel set into a gold brooch designed in the form of a horse racing fence with overgrown leaves, to the reverse signed TIFFANY & CO

Width: 6.3cm

Height of enamel frame: 1.6cm

Weight: 15.5g