S.J. PHILLIPS

Pair of 18th century diamond cluster drop earrings, c.1770,

the tops formed of old and cushion cut diamonds graduating from larger central stones, the button shaped centres with nine stone borders, separate outer scalloped edged frames with twenty cushion cuts, the bottom pear shaped drops formed of a large central pear shaped diamond bordered by cushion cut diamonds, in a further border formed of smaller old cut diamonds, all diamonds cut down collet set, with later fittings, approximately 17.10cts of diamonds in all Length overall: 4.5cm / 1 3/4"

Diameter of top cluster: 1.7cm / 11/16"

Length of bottom drop: 2.5cm / 1"

Width of bottom drop: 2cm / 3/4"
Weight: 17.5g