

S.J. PHILLIPS

Late 19th century five stone ruby ring, English c.1890, with rectangular cushion cut rubies, graduating larger towards the centre, each spaced by small rose cut accent diamonds, all claw set with a scroll carved gallery, open set in gold, approximately 2.90cts of rubies in all (including the central ruby of approximately 0.80ct)

Width across head: 2cm / 3/4"

Central ruby approximately 6.0 x 4.5 x 3.0

Weight: 5g