S.J. PHILLIPS

Louis XV coloured gold oval box, Paris 1758, attributed to Henry Daniel Robineau

, the cover chased and engraved with a hunting motif depicting two dogs beside the dead quarry, a rifle leaning against a tree, amidst foliage, flora and building remains, on a radiating sun ray ground, similar reserves to the base and sides with various trophies including music, love, gardening and travel, floral scroll borders and reeded detail

Length 7cms / 2"

Width 5.5cms / 2 1/8"

Height 3.8cms / 1"

Weight: 129g