S.J. PHILLIPS

18th century cushion and rose cut diamond six petal flowerhead brooch, c.1770, of symmetric design, centred by an oval rose cut diamond cluster of single line border, to slightly curved petals of pointed drop outline, pave set with lines of old mine cushion diamonds of brilliant, double-eight and single cut, diamond line spurs in between, close collet set in silver, later brooch pin fitting Width 5.5cm / 2 1/8"

Weight: 38.5g